PITTSBURG, NEW YORK, 4.

To the accompaniment of a noisy demonstration at the Polo Grounds yesterday the New Yorks dropped into the last hole in the race for the National League pennant. The local talking, demonstrative, Pittsburgh players were the opponents of the locals, and they ran away with the game with some ease. The New Yorks, who had been largely responsible for the loss of the game and the humiliating position in which the team is now placed. He went "up in the air" at two different stages of the play, and on one of the last innings the pitcher, who had been responsible for the two runs by which the Pittsburgh won.

It was in the sixth inning after Beaumont had reached first base through an error by Gleason, that Donnelly gave away a base on balls. Then he made a wild throw which allowed the runner to reach third. Another base on balls to Williams followed and then came another wild throw. This allowed Beaumont to cross the plate and put out on third. Big Hans Wagner came to the front and the game was over. The pitcher, who had been responsible for the two runs by which the Pittsburgh won.

The Pittsburgh players were very noisy, both in the field and on the bench. They kept up a continual fusillade of taunts to themselves, to the spectators and to the umpire. RYAN-MCLOY HOUT A DRAW.

A Queer Decision by the Tattersall's Athletic Club.

Chicago, May 31.—The Tattersall's Athletic Club today rescinded on Tuesday night at the end of the six-round contest between "Kid" McLoey and Tommy Ryan. Under this ruling the bout is made a draw, as called for in the articles of agreement.

The club does not seek to make a scapegoat of anybody. It was a mistake for which the management of the club holds itself and the principals in the bout equally responsible. Referee Hogan was held harmless in the matter. He did not know that there was any provision in the articles against a decision, should both men be on their feet at the end of the encounter. At a meeting of the Contest Committee of the club this afternoon and with the consent of Referee Hogan, it was decided to make the following ruling: "The contest between McLoey and Ryan, which was fought on Tuesday night, is hereby declared a draw, as called for in the articles of agreement."

Baseball Notes.

Pitcher Howell of the Brooklyn will begin taking a regular turn in the box in a few days. Joe Higgins of 179 East 117th street writes to THE SUN that he has not signed with the New York club. The Boston have apparently struck their pit and are looking for a strong pitcher by the first of July.

Several of the Brooklyn's show a tendency not to put out their best efforts in the field. The twenty-five-cent bleachers in center field at Washington Park have been taken down by order of the building department, it is said. There are now only the second-class seats on the grounds instead of double that number.

Brooklyn's catchers, McGuire and Farrell, are both in poor shape, the former with a strained ankle and the latter with a sore throat. The latter might do well to use "Broadway" Smith behind the bat instead of being a liability.

The Champions are not hitting the way they should. Keeler, Dahlgren, Jennings and Jones are away from the bat. The regulars are looking over. The pitchers are not doing well. The team is not hitting the way they should.

It is now said that W. W. Kerr and Phil Auer will leave the Pittsburgh club and join Harry Dyer. Kerr is merely a figurehead, having been elected President at last salary in return for bringing the cream of the local team to the St. Louis club.

Frank De Haas Robinson, President of the St. Louis club, has with his team on the present trip and is confident that the general will win in the St. Louis club. He is not a figurehead, having been elected President at last salary in return for bringing the cream of the local team to the St. Louis club.

Brooklyn vs. Chicago at Chess.

When play finally stopped in the Brooklyn-Chicago telegraphic chess match early yesterday morning, with all the twelve games played to a conclusion, the Brooklynites had won the victory by 7 games to 5. Brilliant play by two Brooklyn youngsters, W. E. Napier and C. S. Howell, and the fine victory achieved over the Chicago team, which was the best of the season.

Cricket.

The weather on Tuesday was ideal for cricket, and the local cricket club took full advantage of it. At Prospect Park, New York and Brooklyn had a well-contested and exciting match, which resulted in a victory for the Manhattan representatives by a score of 126 to 114. This was due altogether to the fine tuning of H. Tattersall, who contributed 60, not out, in his best style. W. Hammond, R. Smith and A. A. Bourne also did good work for the winners. For Brooklyn, D. Bozell played a fine not out inning of 47, and A. Matthews scored 40.

The Manhattan and Nelson Lodge teams had an enjoyable match at Prospect Park, which the former won by a score of 108 to 38. The latter team played splendidly for the Manhattan, while in the second inning C. S. Moore and W. Adam also did good work with the wicket, while the latter and A. Smedley were the best bowlers for the Manhattan.

The game between the Caribbeans and Antilles was a contest of attraction for a large crowd at Prospect Park. The Caribbeans won by a score of 126 to 114. This was due altogether to the fine tuning of H. Tattersall, who contributed 60, not out, in his best style. W. Hammond, R. Smith and A. A. Bourne also did good work for the winners.

UPSETS AT GRAVESEND.

A DEAD HEAT AND TWO DISQUALIFICATIONS WORRY BACKERS.

McMeekin Haled Out as Short of Weight and Lost a Race on a Post-Harlem Lane and Delmar Race Locked to the Wire—Jockey Frederick Littlefield Pilots Two Winners.

The sport furnished by the Brooklyn Jockey Club at Gravesend track yesterday was devoid of stakes features, but brimful of unrehearsed events. A well-fought race, fought strongly to the finish, and there were all on hand early to see the betting problems presented. Several women were also tempted forth in summer attire by the sunshine and the promise of a breeze, and there was general consternation when thunder clouds enveloped the track just before the first race. Fortunately the storm skipped the enclosure and passed out to sea, leaving no trace of a rain cloud. The race was a dead heat, and the jockey was disqualified. The race was a dead heat, and the jockey was disqualified.
